If you want to utilize social media, please contact the social media committee for assistance. Members are not authorized to open public social media channels for ISWAP without consent of the BOD.

Personal Social Media Use Guidelines

When you participate in public discussions on social media sites, we ask that you observe the following guidelines

Do :

- Have fun: Social media brings together friends, family and colleagues from across the world. Respect that each one of us has different backgrounds and different opinions.
- Share: Feel free to follow ISWAP official social channels and share any "PUBLIC" content that is posted with your friends or followers.
- Be transparent: If you are blogging or commenting about ISWAP identify that you are a member and clarify your role. Social media is all about honesty and transparency and those reading your comments deserve to know who you are and what stake (if any) you have in the conversation topic. Be clear that what you are saying is your personal view and not necessarily the official view of the SOCIETY unless you are attributing and linking to an official ISWAP statement.
- Be responsible: Do not disclose or communicate proprietary and/or confidential, non-public information and content that you may have access to or hear about from others. Also, respect the proprietary information of others. If you are not sure if the information you want to post is confidential or not, please double check with COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE OR THE BOD. What you say could influence regulators, or members of the media, so be sure that what you say is accurate and truthful public information and consistent with the ISWAP' Standard of Business Conduct.
- Be respectful & honest: your statements and comments should be truthful to the best of your knowledge and not intended to mislead those reading your posts. And if you are commenting on others, be respectful and factual and do not denigrate our industry peers. As a member, what you say reflects on the ISWAP and all of your colleagues. Remember, the Internet has a very long memory and what you say will stick around for a very long time. So, take a moment to think carefully about what you are saying and the potential impact of your words.

Don't:

- Use copyrighted material, or other intellectual property of third parties.
- Post discriminatory, insulting or hostile comments to/or about members.
- Don't use ethnic slurs, personal insults, obscenity, and abusive, harassing or embarrassing language when referring to the SOCIETY and its members. Be conscious of who may potentially see your profile, content, or comments.
- Post inappropriate pictures.
- External ISWAP Social Media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc. aren't the place to vent issues you may have with the SOCIETY, your colleagues or policies. Discussions or comments about other members, issues with ISWAP policy, or general criticisms about ISWAP should be directed to your BOD. When offering comments or opinions, keep in mind that you may not know the whole story.

The Society reserves the right to remove, or seek the removal of, posts that violate these guidelines. Members found to have violated these guidelines may be subject to consequences including temporary or permanent restriction from some or all Internet resources and facilities.
